

Personal Identity Theft

This Guide to Benefit describes the benefit in effect as of the date your financial institution elected this coverage. This benefit and description supersedes any prior benefit and description you may have received earlier. Please read and retain for your records.

Your eligibility is determined by the date your financial institution enrolled your account in the benefit.

What is the Personal Identity Theft benefit?

The Personal Identity Theft benefit offers reimbursement for covered expenses you incur to restore your identity. It also offers reimbursement for covered expenses your Family Members incur to restore their identity. The maximum reimbursement payable as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event is $10,000.

Who is eligible for this benefit?

To be eligible for this benefit, you must be a valid accountholder, or the Family Member of an accountholder who lives with the accountholder, and reside in the United States or Canada.

What is a Covered Stolen Identity Event?

“Covered Stolen Identity Event” means the theft or unauthorized or illegal use of your name, Social Security number, or any other method of identifying you, the accountholder. For Family Members, it means the theft or unauthorized or illegal use of the Family member’s name, Social Security number, or any method of identifying the Family Member.

What is covered?

Covered costs under the Personal Identity Theft benefit are:

- Costs you or your Family Members incur for re-filing applications for loans, grants, or other credit or debt instruments that are rejected solely because the lender received incorrect information as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event.
- Costs for notarizing affidavits or other similar documents, long distance telephone calls, and postage reasonably incurred as a result of your or your Family’s efforts to report a Covered Stolen Identity Event or to amend or rectify records as to your or your Family Members’ true name or identity as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event.
- Reasonable and necessary costs incurred by you or your Family Member for ordering medical records for the purpose of amending and/or rectifying these documents as a direct result of a stolen identity event.
- Costs incurred by you or your Family Member for a maximum of six (6) credit reports, requested as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event, from any entity approved by the Benefit Administrator.
- Actual lost wages for time taken away from your work premises solely as a result of your efforts to amend or rectify records as to your or your Family Member’s true name or identity as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event.
- Costs for reasonable fees for an attorney appointed by the Benefit Administrator and related court fees you incur with the consent of the Benefit Administrator for: (1) suits brought against you or your Family Member by a creditor or collection agency or similar entity acting on behalf of a creditor for nonpayment of goods or services or default on a loan (2) removing any civil judgments wrongfully entered against you or your Family Member, (3) defending criminal charges brought against you or your Family Member, provided, it has been established that the covered individual was not in fact the perpetrator; as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event.

- Reasonable and necessary cost of travel within the United States incurred as a result of your efforts to amend or rectify records as to your or your Family Member’s true name or identity as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event.
- Reasonable and necessary costs for elder care, spouse care, or child care incurred as a result of your efforts to amend or rectify records as to your or your Family Member’s true name or identity as a result of a Covered Stolen Identity Event.

What is not covered?

- Any dishonest, criminal, malicious, or fraudulent acts by you or your Family Member.
- Any damages, loss, or indemnification unless otherwise stated in this disclosure.
- Costs associated with any legal action or suit other than those set forth under Covered costs.
- Sick days and any time taken from self-employment.
- Any costs as a result of theft or unauthorized use of an account by a person to whom the account has been entrusted.

Is there a charge for these services?

No. Your financial institution provides this benefit to you at no additional cost.

When and where does this benefit apply?

Payment for Covered costs will be limited to costs incurred in the United States, its territories and possessions, Puerto Rico, or Canada for a loss occurring during the benefit period.

How do I file a claim?

Call our Benefit Administrator, toll-free, at (877) 610 – 7889 immediately when you reasonably believe a Covered Stolen Identity Event has occurred and provide information including, but not limited to how, when, and where the Covered Stolen Identity Event occurred, as well as who was impacted.

The Benefit Administrator may also require other reasonable information or documents regarding the loss.

What documents need to be submitted with my claim?

A signed, sworn proof of loss or affidavit containing the information requested by the Benefit Administrator must be submitted within ninety (90) days of discovery of the stolen identity Event.

How will I be reimbursed?

Once your claim has been verified, under normal circumstances, reimbursement will be initiated within five (5) business days of receipt and approval of all required documents.

Do I have to do anything else?

- If you reasonably believe that a law may have been broken, a report must promptly be filed with the police.
- You and your Family Members must take all reasonable steps to mitigate possible costs.

Additional Provisions for Personal Identity Theft:

This benefit applies to you, an eligible account holder. This benefit also provides coverage for your Family Members. Family Member means your spouse, dependent children under the age of twenty-five (25), and your parents, who permanently live in the same residence as you at the time of the Stolen Identity Event. You and your Family Members must use due diligence and do all things reasonable to avoid or diminish any loss of or damage to property protected by the benefit.

If you make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent, no coverage shall exist for such claim. In addition, this benefit may be canceled. Each account holder agrees that representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact.

Once you report a Covered Stolen Identity Event, a claim file will be opened and shall remain open for six (6) months from the date of the Covered Stolen Identity Event. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefit Administrator within six (6) months of the Covered Stolen Identity Event.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid your claim of loss or damage, all your rights and remedies against any party in respect of this loss or damage will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of the payment made to you. You must give the Benefit Administrator all assistance as may reasonably be required to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought until sixty (60) days after we receive a Proof of Loss. No legal action against us may be brought more than three (3) years after the time for giving Proof of Loss. Further, no legal action may be brought against us unless all the terms of this Guide to Benefit have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible account holders at no additional cost and is in effect for acts occurring while the benefit is in effect. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefit may be modified by subsequent endorsements. Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefit mailings, statement inserts, or statement messages. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefit will not apply to account holders whose accounts have been suspended or canceled.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Your financial institution can cancel or non-renew this benefit, and if we do, we will notify you at least thirty (30) days in advance. This information is a description of the benefit provided to you as an account holder. It is insured by Indemnity Insurance Company of North America.

Policy Number: ADD N0652428A, Underwritten by Indemnity Insurance Company of North America, 436 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19106

Cellular Telephone Protection

This Guide to Benefit describes the benefit in effect as of the date your financial institution elected this coverage. This benefit and description supersedes any prior benefit and description you may have received earlier. Please read and retain for your records.

Your eligibility is determined by the date your financial institution enrolled your account in the benefit.

What is Cellular Telephone Protection?

Subject to the terms and conditions provided in this Guide to Benefit, Cellular Telephone Protection will reimburse the enrolled accountholder (the "Accountholder", also referred to as "You" or "Your") for damage to or theft of eligible Cellular Wireless Telephones. Eligible Cellular Wireless Telephones are the primary line and up to the first two secondary, additional, or supplemental lines as listed on Your cellular provider's monthly billing statement for the billing cycle preceding the month in which the theft or damage occurred. Cellular Telephone Protection is subject to a fifty-dollar ($50.00) co-payment per claim and a maximum of two (2) claims per twelve (12) month period. The maximum benefit limit is $300.00 per claim and $600.00 per twelve (12) month period.

Who is eligible for this protection?

To be eligible for Cellular Telephone Protection, You must be an accountholder of an eligible U.S.-based financial institution enrolled in the Cellular Telephone Protection benefit and charge Your monthly Cellular Wireless Telephone bills to Your eligible account. Only Cellular Wireless Telephones purchased by the accountholder will be covered.

Following the program effective date set forth above, Your Cellular Telephone Protection begins the first day of the calendar month following the payment of the Cellular Wireless Telephone bill using an eligible account. If the accountholder fails to make a Cellular Wireless Telephone bill payment in a particular month, the Cellular Telephone Protection is suspended. Provided the Cellular Telephone Protection continues to be offered, the benefit will resume on the first day of the calendar month following the date of any future Cellular Wireless Telephone bill payment with the eligible account.

What type of protection is this?

Cellular Telephone Protection is supplemental to, and excess of, valid and collectible insurance or indemnity (including, but not limited to, Cellular Wireless Telephone insurance programs, homeowner's, renter's, automobile, or employer's insurance policies). After all insurance or indemnity has been exhausted, Cellular Telephone Protection will cover the damage or theft up to $300.00 per claim, subject the terms, conditions, exclusions, and limits of liability of this benefit as well as the fifty-dollar ($50.00) co-payment. The maximum limit of liability is $300.00 per claim occurrence, and $600.00 per twelve (12) month period.

You will receive no more than the purchase price less your fifty-dollar ($50.00) co-payment as recorded on Your submitted receipt.

What is not covered?

- Cellular Wireless Telephone accessories other than standard battery and/or standard antenna provided by the manufacturer.
- Cellular Wireless Telephones purchased for resale, professional, or commercial use.
- Cellular Wireless Telephones that are lost or "mysteriously disappear." "Mysterious disappearance" means the vanishing of an item in an unexplained manner where there is absence of evidence of a wrongful act by a person or persons.
- Cellular Wireless Telephones under the care and control of a common carrier (including, but not limited to, U.S. Postal Service, airplanes, or delivery service).

- Cellular Wireless Telephones stolen from baggage unless hand-carried and under Your personal supervision, or under the supervision of Your traveling companion who is previously known to You.
- Cellular Wireless Telephones stolen from a construction site.
- Cellular Wireless Telephones which have been rented, leased, borrowed or Cellular Wireless Telephones that are received as part of a pre-paid plan or "pay as you go" type plans.
- Cosmetic damage to the Cellular Wireless Telephone or damage that does not impact the Cellular Wireless Telephone's ability to make or receive phone calls.
- Damage or theft resulting from abuse, intentional acts, fraud, hostilities of any kind (including, but not limited to, war, invasion, rebellion, or insurrection), confiscation by the authorities, risks of contraband, illegal activities, normal wear and tear, flood, earthquake, radioactive contamination, or damage from inherent product defects or vermin.
- Damage or theft resulting from misdelivery or voluntary parting with the Cellular Wireless Telephone.
- Replacement Cellular Wireless Telephone not purchased from a cellular service provider's retail or Internet store (or authorized reseller).
- Taxes, delivery and transportation charges, and any fees associated with the cellular service provider.

Do I need to keep copies of receipts or any other records?

Yes. If You want to file a claim, You will need copies of Your account statement reflecting monthly Cellular Wireless Telephone bill payments during the time of the damage or theft and Your store receipt for purchase of Your new Cellular Wireless Telephone.

How do I file a claim?

Call the Benefit Administrator at (877) 610 - 7889 within sixty (60) days of damage or theft. Please note: If You do not give such notice within sixty (60) days after the damage or theft Your claim may be denied.

The Benefit Administrator representative will ask You for some preliminary claim information and send You the appropriate claim form. This claim form must be completed, signed, and returned with all the requested documentation within ninety (90) days from the date of damage or theft of the eligible Cellular Wireless Telephone or Your claim may be denied.

What do I need to submit with my claim?

- Your completed and signed claim form.
- Copies of Your account statement reflecting the entire monthly Cellular Wireless Telephone payments for the month preceding the date of damage or theft.
- A copy of Your cellular wireless service provider billing statement that corresponds with the above account statement.
- A copy of the original Cellular Wireless Telephone purchase receipt or other sufficient proof, as determined in the Benefit Administrator's sole discretion, of the Cellular Wireless Telephone model currently linked to Your Cellular Wireless Telephone account.
- If the claim is due to theft or criminal action, a copy of the police report filed within forty-eight (48) hours of the occurrence.
- If the claim is due to damage, a copy of an insurance claim or other report as the Benefit Administrator, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to determine eligibility for coverage. In addition the Benefit Administrator may in its sole discretion require (a) an itemized estimate of repair from an authorized Cellular Wireless Telephone repair facility or (b) the Accountholder to submit the Cellular Wireless Telephone to the Benefit Administrator to evaluate the damage or (c) an itemized store receipt for the replacement Cellular Wireless Telephone showing the purchase was made at a cellular service provider's retail or Internet store (for example: Verizon Wireless, AT&T, Sprint, etc.).
- If the claim amount is less than Your personal homeowner's, renter's, or automobile insurance deductible, a copy of Your insurance policy personal declaration page is sufficient for Your claim. If the claim amount is greater than Your personal homeowner's, renter's, or automobile insurance deductible, You are required to file a claim with Your applicable insurance company and to submit a copy of any claims settlement from Your insurance company along with Your claim form.

- Documentation (if available) of any other settlement of the claim.
- Any other documentation deemed necessary, in the Benefit Administrator's sole discretion, to substantiate Your claim. All claims must be fully substantiated as to the time, place, cause, and purchase price of the Cellular Wireless Telephone.

How will I be reimbursed?

Depending on the nature and circumstances of the damage or theft, the Benefit Administrator, at its sole discretion, may choose to repair or replace the Cellular Wireless Telephone or reimburse the accountholder for the lesser of a) $300.00 excess of the fifty-dollar ($50.00) co-payment; or b) the current suggested retail price of a replacement Cellular Wireless Telephone of like kind and quality, excluding taxes, delivery and transportation charges, and any fees associated with the Cellular Wireless Telephone service provider, less the fifty-dollar ($50.00) co-payment.

Please note: Cellular Telephone Protection is subject to a maximum of two (2) claim occurrences per twelve (12) month period. Under normal circumstances, reimbursement will take place within ten (10) business days of receipt and approval of claim form and all required documents.

Additional Provisions for Cellular Telephone Protection:

This protection provides benefits only to You, an eligible accountholder. You shall use due diligence and do all things reasonable to avoid or diminish any loss or damage to the Cellular Wireless Telephone from damage or theft. This provision will not be applied unreasonably to avoid claims.

If You make any claim knowing it to be false or fraudulent in any respect including, but not limited to, the cost of repair services, no coverage shall exist for such claim and the Cellular Telephone Protection benefit may be canceled. Each accountholder agrees that representations regarding claims will be accurate and complete. Any and all relevant provisions shall be void in any case of fraud, intentional concealment, or misrepresentation of material fact.

Once You report an occurrence of damage or theft, a claim file will be opened and shall remain open for six (6) months from the date of the damage or theft. No payment will be made on a claim that is not completely substantiated in the manner required by the Benefit Administrator within six (6) months of the date of damage or theft.

After the Benefit Administrator has paid Your claim, all Your rights and remedies against any party in respect of this claim will be transferred to the Benefit Administrator to the extent of payment made to You. You must give all assistance as may be reasonably necessary to secure all rights and remedies.

No legal action for a claim may be brought against Us until sixty (60) days after the Benefit Administrator receives all necessary documentation needed to substantiate damage or theft. After the expiration of three (3) years from the time written Proof of Loss was to be provided, no action shall be brought to recover on this benefit. Further, no legal action may be brought against Us unless the terms and conditions of this Guide to Benefit have been complied with fully.

This benefit is provided to eligible accountholders at no additional cost. The terms and conditions contained in this Guide to Benefit may be modified by subsequent endorsements.

Modifications to the terms and conditions may be provided via additional Guide to Benefit mailings, statement inserts, or statement messages. The benefit described in this Guide to Benefit will not apply to accountholders whose accounts have been suspended or canceled. The Cellular Telephone Protection described in this Guide to Benefit will not apply to accountholders whose applicable account(s) are closed, delinquent, or otherwise in default.

Termination dates may vary by financial institutions. Your financial institution can cancel or non-renew the benefit, and if we do, we will notify You at least thirty (30) days in advance. This information describes the benefit provided to You as an accountholder. It is insured by Indemnity Insurance Company of North America.
